Fade to Black

August 18, 2008; 5:52 am by UrbanBaby

You burned all photographic evidence back in the '90s, but you did actually go through a Goth phase. Black nail polish was your thing — and you've never completely recovered.

Give a shout out to your inner punk with MamaSan Maternity. The rocker-inspired collection features black skirts, strapless tops and dresses, highlighted with embroidery of skull and crossbones, pin-up girls and cherries. It's just edgy enough to wear over a baby bump.

Rock on.
